The stock show takes place near Pendle-

Dr. J. A. Anderson, of Antreville, spent a day in the city last week. C. S. Minor & Co. have a new advertise-

Dr. D. W. Reid, of Due West, preached at Concord Church last Sabbath. Eggs are worth from 15 to 20 cents a dozen in the city, and are scarce at that.

Despite the large crowds on our streets every day, the police have very little to

The Sun says Miss Neta McGee, of Twiggs, has entered the Hartwell High

Cotton buyers all say that they never

Mr. C. H. Orr has gone to Washington City to spend a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Earle. Miss Mada Goodgion, of Laurens, is in the city visiting the family of Mr. J. C. C. Featherston.

There is less idleness and loafing around Anderson than is usually seen in places of Messrs. Chas. D. Brown and F. A. Spellman, of Abbeville, spent Sunday night in the city.

Mrs. C. W. Webb and children have gone to Sumter, S. C., to spend a few weeks with relatives. Mr. J. J. Fretwell is in Boston on busi ness. He will visit other of the commercial cities of the North before he returns. Mrs. J. C. Stribling and Misses Lillian Caldwell and May Cherry, of Seneca, spent a few days with Miss Lou Gaillard last week.

Dr. R. F. Divver has sold his foundry and machine shops to Mr. Thomas Alston, of Charleston, who is now in control of Rev. R. C. Ligon will preach at Roberts Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to at-

Messrs. Sam. Wakefield and Lawrence Robinson, two of Abbeville County's energetic young farmers, were in Anderson last Friday selling cotton. Married, on Sunday, September 27, 1891, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. E. A. Durham, Mr. G. R. Clardy and Miss Janie Burriss.

The Aetna Life Insurance Co. wants an Agent in Anderson County. See advertisement. This is an old and very reliable Company, and does an immense business

Mrs. J. A. Hoyt, of Greenville, is spending a few days in the city with relatives. Mrs. Hoyt's visits to Anderson are always a source of much pleasure to her numer

The public schools in Belton Township will begin the first Monday in November. The parents should note this, and start their children promptly at the beginning

There can be nothing in this world that is better than youth. Every time an old man sees anything that pleases him he says it reminds him of the time when he was young.

County Treasurer Payne begins collecting the State and County taxes to-day at Holland's Store. If you have the money pay up now and avoid the rush which usually comes later on.

Miss Jane Ransom, a sister of Mr. Wm. Ransom, of this County, after a residence of several years in the County, has return-ed to her old home in Mecklenburg County, N. C., to reside with a niece.

Andrew Jones a young darkey, while walking into the yard of one of our citizens in a drunken condition, a few evenings ago, fell upon an old scythe blade and

Mr. Jasper Schrimp and family, of Cincinnati, O., arrived in Anderson on Wednesday, and are now visiting the former's brother, Mr. George Schrimp, in this County, Mr. Schrimp will probably locate

The weather prophets are hard at work grinding out their gruesome augeries of storms, cyclones and cloudbursts, and the next scientific invention in order will be

The Sylvester Bleckley Co. have the exclusive sale in this city of the shoes manufactured by the Anderson Shoe Factory, and we call your attention to what is said in another column by the Secretary in ref-

We congratulate our neighbor on the other side of the Savannah, the Hartwell Sun, upon having attained its sixteenth anniversary. During all these years Editor McGill has guided the Sun in its jour-

We regret exceedingly to hear of the terrible accident that has happened to our young friend, Chas. B. Lewis, as related by our Belto: correspondent. The INTELLIGENCER joins the many friends of Mr. Lewis in mishing him a speedy necessary. Lewis in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of our young friend, David J. Tucker, of Hopewell Township, and Miss Ida Welborn, of Williamston, which will take place on Wednesday evening, 21st inst., at the home of the bride in William-

Fall weather is here, and there will very naturally be a quickening of all the pulses of trade. Men will have a brisker step on organization of the pulses of trade. the streets, greater activity in business, and life and energy of increased intensity will mark the handling of business en-

Mr. R. L. Robinson was called to his home in Abbeville County, to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Mary Robinson, who died on Sunday, and was buried at Little River Church on Monday, the runeral services being conducted by Rev. R. D. Hawkins.

M. Brice Clinkscales, Luther Haddon, D. S. Kennedy and W. J. Donnald, progressive and prosperous farmers of Abbeville County, were in the city on business last week. They like the way business is done here, and make several trips a year to this market.

Seel & Archer have a new advertisement in another column, and it should be read carefully, especially by those who com-template buying stoves, tinware, etc. These gentlemen handle a variety of goods in their line, and offer them at prices that A. B. Carpenter & Bros., of Pelzer, have sold their entire business to H. C. Wilson & Co., and the new firm will continue the business at the old stand in Pelzer. T. S. Carpenter and W. B. Carpenter, members of the former firm, will move to Green-

Grace, the 15 months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Catlett, died last Sat-urday morning. The little one had been very ill for two weeks. On Sunday afternoon the remains were interred in the Silver Brook Cemetery, Rev. M. O. Ligon conducting the funeral services.

Mr. Girond Hammond, the 'iolly drummer and genial gentleman, has returned home from New York, where he has been helping his customers to select their fall atock of clothing. He will have many in-teresting anecdotes and incidents to relate to his friends concerning his travels.

we bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

bly low prices, and will repair either at prices to suit you. He is next door to the postoffice, and it will do him good to have you call and see him and his goods. Read what he says.

The land on which the Church stands was donated by that clever gentleman, Mr. W. A. Geer, of Belton.

Earle, the 13-year-old-son of Mr. J. Belton Watson, accidentally got his left hand caught in a gin a few days ago and was painfully hurt. The hand was badly cut in several places, but Dr. Nardin, who dressed it, saved all of the fingers except the second one. We hope Earle will soon regain the use of his hand.

travelling public. The hotel has been renovated from cellar to garret, refurnished and is now one of the best houses in the State. When you visit Charleston, try The receipts of cotton at this market last week was 2,248 bales, while the receipts for the corresponding week of last year were 1,174 bales, a difference of 1,074 bales in favor of last week. The total receipts for this season are 6,116 bales as against 5,182 bales for the same time last

The Lebanon section is certainly ahead on the potato question. Last week we acknowledged receipt of a potato from that section that weighed six and one-balf pounds, and now comes Mr. C. M. Roblins, one of the most energetic young farmers of that same section, and presents us with a potato that weighs eight pounds. Who

Miss Emily Dave, wife of Mr. George Dove, died at her home in Hall Township last Friday afternoon Mrs. Dove had beer Ill about six months, and at times was a agreat sufferer. She was about 45 years of age, and leaves a husband and four children to cherish her memory. Her remains were interred in the Flat Rock Church-

Invitations have been issued to the mar-riage of Mr. Arthur E. Arnold, of Athens, Ga., and Miss Ella Donnald, of this city. The ceremony takes place at the home of the bride, on McDuffie street, next Tues-day afternoon, at 3 o'clock, after which

One of Charleston's leading cotton fac tors remarked on our streets not long ago that Anderson County produced the best grade of cotton that was shipped to Charleston. He said it was a better staple,

On to-morrow (Friday) night the Home School, under the management of its effi-cient Principal, Miss L. C. Hubbard, will give an entertainment in the Opera House for the benefit of the Confederate Monu-ment. Admission, 25 cents. Tickets may secured in advance of Hill Bros. or at Hubbard Bros. The object is a worthy one, and we want to see the Opera clouse

The Trustees of the M. E. Church (colored) of this city, on account of the increase of the membership and congregation of their Church, have decided to add The contract has been given to Mr. C. M. Guess, who promises to complete the same within four or five weeks. lecture room, 25x30 feet to their Chu sists in trying to take a large and knotty potato from the floor with a small teaspoon, and carrying it a given distance within a certain period of time. Those who think it easy should try it once.

a 10-cent counter, with many notions and racket goods, to their stock of confectioneries and groceries, and their sister, Miss Mollie, will have charge of this department, and will be glad to have her friends call and see her. They have also secured the services of Master Willie Andrews as Willie is a courteous, upright boy, and will do good service for both his

"A cash proposition" is the apt intro-duction to Messrs. Ligon & Ledbetter's new advertisement in this issue. These entlemen conduct one of the handsomest and nestest groceries in the city, and spare no pains to sell their customers first-class goods at prices to give them satisfaction.

Fork, near Fair Play, has two little sons whom he should feel proud of, and who are no doubt the champion cotton pickers are no doubt the champion cotton pickers among the boys of the County. Their names are Scudday and Bennie Grubbs, and the former is fifteen and the latter ten years of age. In one day Scudday picked 373 pounds of cotton and Bennie 313 what we want to know is what to call it. Mr. A. E. Patterson, who lives near Mr. Richardson, will take pleasure in showing this tree to any one who cares to see it, as it is on his land.

nearly one-quarter of a cent in favor of this market. He said Anderson was a

The Elberton (Ga.) Star, of the 9th inst., says: "Mr. J. M. Sullivan, of Anderson, S. C., and who is a member of the famous Sullivan Hardware Company of that city, has been on a visit to Elberton. That Company, in conjunction with Mr. Char-lie Sullivan, of Elberton, has bought out for the patrons of the firm, as they will handle larger lots of goods."

our language. They have Sabbath schools corn on hands, which sells at 40 cents a partment. Here he also keeps a large lot bushel and new corn at 30 cents. He says of goods, and expects in the near future to his people have made a big crop of apples

The following are the Jurors for the approaching term of Court: John O. Mc-Adams, Robert B. Finley, Wm, B. Tate, H. Berry Davenport, Robert I. Stuart, Chas. M. Buchanan, Jas. I. Barton, Warren J. Martin, Wm. F. Lee, Chas. A. Dunwoody. George R. McLees, J. Frank Gambrell, W. R. Dillingham, T. S. Crayton, John H. Hancock, Jeff. B. King, Lemuel W. Crenshaw, Archie T. Mauldin, Robert M. Shirley. Wm. H. Martin, John

"Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God bath shined." Ilasod on this beauti-ful text from the 50th Psalm the Rev. Marshall O. Ligon preached a timely and The County Alliance met in the city last Friday, and twenty-eight of the forty-one sub-Alliances in the County were represented. The District Lecturer, J. L. Keitt, was present and spoke to the menting. Not having finished its business the Alliance adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, ance adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, 23rd inst.

Rev. T. H. Garrett, who has been supplying Flat Rook Baptist Church for the past three years, has been re-elected pastor for another year. He has also been called to serve Long Branch Church. Both to serve Long Branch Church. Both these Churches have recently built new houses of worshlp, and are in a flourishing condition.

of the Master that will make him a useful instrument in the reclaiming of the immortal souls of his fellow men from the sares of the Evil One and in saving them for that Zion where only can be found the perfection of beauty and happiness imperishable. The prayers of many friends will go with this young divine for his success in the arduous labors that rest upon every sincere and faithful minister of Churches have recently built new houses of worshlp, and are in a flourishing condition at Marietta.

The intensive system is my motto. I don't know how to make money any other way." So says Mr. D. S. Burnett, Eulala, and in a short time had secured the natter in charge. These gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured the natter in charge. These gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured the natter in charge. These gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured to take the natter in charge. These gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured to take the natter in charge. These gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured to take the natter in charge. The set gentlement went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured to take the natter in charge. The natter in charge. The intensive system is my motto. I don't know how to make more went to work with their usual energy, and in a short time had secured to take the natter in charge. The natte

An exchange says: "There is nothing that equals fresh butter-milk for remov-ing tan, freekles, sunburn or moth spots. little child's. Take a soft cloth or sponge and bathe the face, neck and arms thorthe night, then wipe off the drops lightly. In the morning wash it thoroughly and odist Church of this city, preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sabbath night to a crowded house. This to live more useful and noble lives. think that Mr. Smith is doing much good in the cause of Christian religion, and especially among the young people. in speaking of the Superintendent of the R. & D. R. R., says: "He is being importuned by the people of Anderson for an early morning train out of Columbia, but it seems that their appeals are not likely to be granted, at least until the completion of the South Bound to Columbia, when it is connection with and as a continuation of a train from Savannah to the up-country. Certainly Columbia should move and join

Prof. John G. Clinkscales, recently of the Columbia Female College, has located at Williamston until he assumes his position in Clemson College. A few days ago the News and Courier paid the Professor the following deserved compliment: "Prof. John G. Clinkscales has won golden opinions from the people of the various Counties where he has been holding teachers' Institutes this summer. He has done excellent work, and has stimulated the teachers to greater efforts in the future. He is earnest and enthusiastic. Superintendent Mayfield was fortunate in secur-ing his services for the Institutes."

Chief of Police Fant owns a lot near the Chief of Police Fant owns a lot near the S. V. R. R., in the southwestern suburbs of the city. On Sunday afternoon he decided to visit it, and while walking along the railroad, near a pine thicket, he happened to see a friend down the road. He hailed him in a loud voice, and, as he did hailed him in a loud voice, and, as he did so, about a dozen negroes suddenly jumped up from among the pines and fled in every direction. The Chief was considerably surprised, and he knew not what it meant. Walking out some distance into the pines he found a deck of cards and other evidence that it was a gambling party, who had recognized his voice when he hailed the friend. Several of the darkies came in the direction of the city, and the Chief, hastening on after city, and the Chief, hastening on after them succeeded in arresting four of them.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting in the Opera House next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, will be public, to which every one is most cordially invited. Mr. L. E. Norryce will cordially invited. Mr. L. E. Norryce will conduct the meeting. Scripture lesson II Peter: 5-11 inclusive. Subject: "Soul Development," which will be spoken to as follows: Faith and Virtue, by Prof. H. H. Watkins; Knowledge and Temperance, by Mr. J. Bennet Townsend; Patience and Godliness, by Dr. R. W. Brown: Brotherly Kindness and Charity, by C. F. Jones Results: Fruitfulness: by C. F. Jones. Results: Fruitfulness an abundant entrance into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by members of the Association The best musical talent of the city will be present, and a pleasant and profitable time is in store for those who attend.

The Anderson County Singing Convention met at Eureka Church last Saturday, and re-organized by electing the following officers: President, Rev. D. W. Hiott; Vice President, John Eskew; Secretary, J. L. Hembree. The meeting throughout the day was a most pleasant one and the day was a most pleasant one, and Any of our young readers in search of new schemes for entertainment might try a "potato walk," which is a Southern Virginia invention. It is described as a novel and amusing diversion, and conducted by C. Wardlaw, Esq. The Conducted by C. Wardl time and place of next meeting, and ad-journed. Of late years the Convention has been dormant, but it is the intention of those interested now to go to work and make it a big success. A good set of offi-cers has been selected, and if they will have the co-operation of every person who lish it as a permanent organization.

> The Greenville News, of the 9th inst., says: "Miss Rebekak Douthit, daughter of J. G. Douthit, was married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at her father's home, near Sandy Springs, in Anderson County, to Samuel J. Pickle, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Clifton, pastor of the Buncombe Street Methodist Church. The following friends of the young couple were present from this city: Dr. Davis Furman, W. L Gassaway, Mrs. M. G. DeCamp, Miss Blanche Douthit and Miss Fannie Wood-Only members of the family and intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Pickle and their friends returned to the city yesterday and received the congretu-lations of friends, with wishes for long years of happiness and prosperity."

Easley Messenger: "Mr. John M. Hen dricks died of apoplexy at his home in the western part of this County, near Six Mile Church, on the 2nd inst., aged about seventy-five years. Mr. Hendricks survived only about twenty-four hours after being stricken down. He was born and reared in this County, but lived in Ander-son County twenty-five or thirty years, when about eight years ago he removed to the place where he died. He had been a devoted and good member of the Meth-dist Church forty years of his life and died triumphing in the hope of eternal life with God in heaven. His remains were buried at Fairview Church about four miles south of this place in Anderson County on the 3rd instant, the Rev. J. F. Anderson, of this place, conducting the funeral services in the Church, when the Masons of Bates Lodge No. 151, of this place, of which Lodge the deceased was a member, took charge of the remains and buried them according to the rites of the order. He leaves a widow and ten living children, besides other relatives and many friends to mourn his death."

Mr. R. S. Hill has displayed considerable enterprise in the erection of the hand some building which has just been com-pleted on South Main Street, on a portion of the old Benson House premises. The and attracts the admiration of every visitor to our growing city. The building is 50x140 feet in the clear, with basement and two stories. Nothing but the best material has been used in its construction. large elevator connects the basement with the upper floors, and the upper story cen also be reached by a large and handsome double stairway. The building is heated by steam and supplied with all the modern conveniences, Having more room Mr. Hill has increased his stock of goods considerably, and has a department for every class of goods that he handles. In the centre of the room he has a handsome semi-circular counter, where his gents' furnishing goods are displayed, and back of it are his his clothing counters. On the right are dress goods, notions, etc., while the left side is given up exclusively to goods, etc. The heavy groceries are kept in the basement and in a large warehouse, which stands in the rear of his building. On the upper floor is the dress-making de nse it as a wholesale department. Mr. Hill and his numerous clerks, of both sexes, are willing and anxious to show their goods, and can supply you with almost any article you may want at a low price. Read his advertisement. On the 1st February, 1886, a small but enthusiastic Sunday School was organized at Eureka School House, about four miles east of the city, on the Williamston road, and Col. L. E. Campbell was elected Su-perintendent. A better man could not have been selected for the position, and the success of the school was soon assured. On the 10th November, 1888, as an outgrowth of this Sunday School, a Baptist Church, with seventeen members, was organized. Rev. L. W. Gaines preached the sermion on the occasion, and was astronged the sermion on the occasion, and was asthe sertion on the organization by Deacons sisted in the organization by Deacons Joshua Holland and Wm. Shirley, of Neal's Creek Church, and P. G. Acker and J. T. Rice, of the Belton Church.

The weather has been cloudy and cold and get our prices.

The weather has been cloudy and cold and get our prices.

building is a small one, but very substantially and neatly constructed. The extethe native wood. A baptismal pool has plied with water through a pipe from a Spring near by. A pretty carpet covers the ailes and the rostrum, and the seats are

Last Sunday had been set apart for the dedication of the Church, and Rev. T. M. Galphin, of Piedmont, invited to preach County Singing Convention was in session, but soon adjourned. After a short intermission, the Church was again filled to its utmost capacity. Just before the services began, Col. L. E. Campbell arose in his seat, and, addressing the pastor, presented the Church with a large and handsome Bible as a gift from the Willing Workers, a society composed of little girls inder 12 years of age, which had been or received the Bible, and, after returning the thanks of the congregation, asked every-strong plea to his hearers to live Godly lives. He spoke about fifty minutes, and throughout his sermon was eloquent, interesting and impressive. A synopsis the sermon would not do Mr. Galphin justice, and we will not attempt to give it. Eureka congregation has done exceedingly well, and we tender the members

Patrick Military Institute,

The following cadets have been appoin-ted officers of the three companies for STAFF-J. A. Riley, adjutant. Orange-burg; N. G. Morall, quartermaster, Barnwell; J. F. O'Donnell, sergeant ma-

Anderson, first sergeant; M. Wilson Anderson, first sergeant; M. Wilson, of Darlington, second sergeant; J. T. Bell, of Anderson, first corporal; C.F. Dixon, of Anderson, second corporal; W. H. Nardin, of Anderson, third corporal, W. S. Brown, of Anderson, fourth corporal. Company B—W. F. Brunson, Barnwell, captain; W. W. Fuller, Edgefield, first lightenant; J. D. McLeod, Sumter first lieutenant; J. D. McLeod, Sumter, second lieutenant; C. J. Brunson, Barnwell, first sergeant; A.S. Culpeper, Flor-ence, second sergeant; H. J. Chappell, Richland, first corporal; R. W. Speer, COMPANY C-B. S. Patrick, Anderson, captain; F. E. Taylor, Anderson, first lieutenant; H. E. Richbourg, Clarendon, neutenant; H. E. Richbourg, Clarendon, second lieutenant; W. P. Knotts, Orangeburg, first sergeant; T. H. Gibbes, Richland, second sorgeant; J. E. Sanders, Sumter, first corporal; R. G. Paine, Charleston, second corporal; I. D. Burden, Charleston, third corporal; C. E. Brotherbed, Recorporal hood, Beaufort, fourth corporal. The roll of Cadets continues to increase and the Institute now has a larger num-ber of Cadets than it has ever had since it was located in Anderson.

The high prices paid for cotton in Belton causes the fleecy staple to continue to roll into our market. Mr. G. W. Cox, our efficient, strictly honest and accommodatbuyers and the population of the town, few places can make a better report of the sales of cotton than can Belton. And Belton not only gives the top of the market for cotton, but it sells goods at the lowest living prices.

Mr. C. B. Lewis, living within a mile or two of this place, had the misfortune last Saturday of getting his left hand and arm mis. Walker, the sister of Mrs. J. T. Smith, of our town, and the wife of Mr. R. E. Walker, of Jesup, Ga., expects, some time in the near future, to accompany her husband and his father and mother, of Brunswick, Ga., to England for the purpose of looking after an estate left to them at the recent death of a relation from Alabama, where he has been travel-are getting up an excellent program for Bible Day. The ladies are almost always in the lead in every good work.

Come to the debate next Friday evening at half past seven o'clock at the Belton Academy. Question for discussion: "Do the learned professions offer a more invit-ing field than a mercantile life?" We understand that Mr. Willie Clink-scales, who recently went to Furman University, has entered the Junior Class, and is getting along finely with his stud ies. We are always glad to hear of the success of our Belton boys. Several of the young people of our town and neigh-borhood will soon be ready to enter the

The people of Honea Path spent a very oleasant evening at the Academy on Monday of last week. The Pierian Literary Society, instead of a debate, had toasts and nation in the world. Responded to by W. L. Taylor.

Toast-South Carolina, the best State in the Union. Responded to by J. D. Cul-Toast-Anderson, the best County in the State. Responded to by M. A. McGee.
Toast—Honea Path, the best Town in the County. Responded to by B. Y. Cul-

Stepp. Several former students of the Honea Path High School have been on a visit here recently, viz: Misses Kittie Thomas, Clatie McDaniel, Mertie Culbertson, and Messrs, J. L. Eskew, B. M. Cheatham, W.

thing for the successful practice of his pro-fession. He has a sitting-room nicely furnished, a ladies' toilet-room, an operating room and a labratory. He has games for children and for visitors. That in which children are most interested is a railroad track, with an engine and a train of cars-He says he is going to stay in Honea Path, and do such work as will deserve custom and will bring it.

The merchants of Honea Path are selling goods cheaper than ever before.

Mr. J. M. Dunlap had two of his fingers Mrs. Dr. Shirley and the baby are visit-Miss Mary J. Erwin, after several months visit in Ireland, and a few days visit in Female College has more students this s one of the best institutions of learning in the State. The male school is in charge of Prof. Gaines, and is well attended. He is an accomplished, elegant young man, and some of our young ladies might do well to sot their caps for him. Last Sunday night Rev. Mr. Galphin preached an impressive sermon in the Baptist Church. Several of our citizens are improving their dwelling houses. Capt. G. W. Sullivan has just completed a fine residence. Messrs. John Wilson and Jay H. Epting are opening a drug store at Dr. Epting's old stand. We wish them big success, as they are two of our most excellent and worthy young men.

Mr. A. Sadler will have charge of the hotel here next year. Mr. Sadler is a find gentleman, and will continue to keep up the good reputation of the hotel.

Mr. James P. Gossett, of this place, has good has been a find a find some which we have the same of the same with a find some who have been described by the same with a find some who have the same who have the same with the sam pened business in Anderson. We hope e will meet with success.

I noticed a little controversy in the In-TELLIGENCER between "Joeberry Bump-er" and "Ball Sorehead," and I think it is time to stop such foolishness, and repent and build bridges or trestles over the ditches. I say three cheers for "Joe Humper." Let us have good roads, if it does make people sore. It seems to make "Joe" feel his keeping to have made some public road. I suppose in six days more he can get out of building bridges by tunneling under the ditches. So go ahead "Joe;" we will all get there by and by, if we have to go the new cut road. I guess "uncle Ball" is getting weak kneed, and peace and harmony will now prevail.

"Isn't it cold, though?" is the expres-sion most generally heard now. But the farmers are glad to have this dry weather ntinue, if it is cold, so they can have their cotton gathered, which will all soon be open around here. Rev. W. H. King, who was to have preached on last Sunday at Lebanon Church, failed to come, but the congregation was entertained for a short while by an able address from Prof. J. M. Hamlin. All are preparing for the Ministers' and Deacons' meeting to be held at Lebanon hurch on the 14th and 15th inst. We

The many friends of Mrs. J. H. Hutch inson and Miss Kate Craig will be glad to learn that both are improving. The equanimity of our community was somewhat disturbed last week by the anouncement of the marriage of the accom-lished Miss Rebecca Douthit to Mr. Sam el Pickle, of Greenville. The happy couple were quietly married by the Rev. Mr. Clifton, of Greenville, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. G. Douthit, and immediately boarded the train for Greenville, where they will henceforth reside. We tender the happy pair our best wishes for a future of unalloyed pleasure. If Madam Rumor's reports are true, other weddings will take place at no dis-ope to see a large number of visiting tant day.

Thompson & Craig are about to finish up their sorghum making for this year. They have filled their barrels, and the kegs of the many customers are most empty, but it's all right and they thank these worthy gentlemen for being so kind as to work for the public, and hope they will do so another year.

Miss Rosa Welborn, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Holland, at Central, returned home last week. How the wind does blow! I believe I'll quit and warm my finger-tips, and if the weather doesn't get too cold, you may hear from me again.

Box Jour.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: Please allow us the privilege of extending through your columns our thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for their kindness and expressions of sympathy during the illness of our little darling, who has been called home to the Angels.

MR. AND MRS. J. P. CATLETT.

Important Matter.

sales of cotton than can Belton. And Belton not only gives the top of the market for cotton, but it sells goods at the lowest living prices. Give our merchants a trial.

And Trade in South Carlotta and Coorgan has called forth years of study and close attention to the wants of the people. This firm now calls special attention to their superior line of guns, pistols, cartridges and amiliary than the coorgan has a special attention to their superior line of guns, pistols, cartridges and amiliary than the coorgan has a special attention to the superior line of guns, pistols, cartridges and amiliary than the coorgan has a special attention to the special attention to the superior line of guns, pistols, cartridges and a special attention to the special attention to munition. They pay the $200 license without extra charge to customers for cartridges and pistols. Their line of guns is simply superb, and as to general hardware, their stock is larger and in many re-

An Enthusiast on "Intensive Farming," and he will "get there." John H. Huiet, Esq., President Globe Phosphate Company, Columbia, S. C.
Dear Sir—In reply to your first question: I used the present season 20 bushels cotton seed, with 200 pounds of your Alkaline Acid Phosphate, and put in the A colored man named McDavid, who had been living on the premises of Mr. A. C. Latimer, was buried here last Sunday in the cemetery of the colored people.

Mr. J. D. Campbell, of Spartanburg, is on a visit to our village.

Mr. A. C. Latimer has recently referred. bale to the acre on this season. Am an enthusiast on intensive farming. Consider your fertilizer as good as the best.

> Township, near Craytonville, now owned by Rev. Mike McGee. Other lands in dif-ferent parts of the County. Several desirable properties in the City of Anderson.
> We mean to sell.
> TRIBBLE & QUATTLEBAUM,
> Real Estate Agents.

> For Sale.—A large lot of dry, undressed pine Flooring. Address Merritt & Plunkett, Batesburg, S. C.

Ask your Grocer for White Rose Leaf La rd and Buffalo Hams. Catarrh is in the blood. No cure for this loathsome and dangerous disease is possi-ble until the poison is thoroughly eradicated from the system. For this purpose, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best and most tles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle. Dr. Todd's Insurance Promptly Paid, ANDERSON, S. C., Sept. 25, 1891.

Messrs. Geo. C. Hodges and C. Wardlaw, Agents N. Y. Life Insurance Co.: Dear Sirs: I wish to acknowledge the receipt, through you, of the check of the old reliable New York Life Insurance Company for $2,500, settlement in full of policy No. 277,755, on life of my late huspand Dr. W. H. Todd, who insured 10th December 1889, and died 4th Sept. 1891. The promptness and courtesy with which you have prepared all papers and settled this claim is highly commendable, for which I desire to return my grateful ac which I desire to return my grateful acknowledgement and heartily recommend your company to any person desiring complete protection. Though my husband was insured in another N. Y. comband was insured in another N. Y. company, your company, the New York Life, was the first to pay its claim.

South Carolina promptly and courteously, without a contest, without a compromise, and without discount. I am yours very MRS. HATTIE G. TODD If you want first-class insurance, confer with C. Wardlaw, Agent, Anderson, S. C., or Geo. C. Hodges, Agent, Greenwood,

When the hair shows signs of failing, begin at once to use Ayer's Vigor. This eparation strengthens the scalp, promotes the growth of new hair, restores the natural color to gray and faded hair, and renders it soft, pliant and glossy.

If you want a cotton gin which will bring you custom and make a fine sample, buy the Hall Self-Feeding Cotton Gin, which is superior to all others. Cotton ginned on it will bring from oneeighth to one-fourth of a cent more than on any other. Cane Mills and Evap-orators cheaper than you can buy from the Manufacturer. A specialty in smoke stacks. We are well fixed for making Yours, very truly, PROPLES & BURRISS,

When she was a Child, she cried for Casteria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

G.MEANS, JR., NO. 40 GRANITE Red Front.

Don't Mistake the Place:

MR. FLYNN'S OLD STAND.

CLOTHING, * SHOES, * HATS

AND

ONE PRICE to ALL

A. C. MEANS, JR.

C. F. JONES & CO. BULLETIN NO. 1.

TAKE THE LEAD.

We have 200 acres of land to sell in Savannah Township—well adapted to stock raising. Three Hundred acres in Martin

Dress Goods and Trimmings. | Notions and Fancy Goods. Our stock is superb! Lovely Bedford Cords, Camel Hairs, French Serges, French and German Plaids, Henriettas, Novelty Dress Patterns with Polka Dots, no two alike. We have been surprised at their ready sale. Trimming -- we have | world renowned goods. Kid Gloves, the everything new: Nail Heads, Gold and Silver Pasementeries, Jet Ornaments, Silks and Velvets in endless profusion. We were determined to make this De partment the finest in Anderson. Our | can find everything in Notions. Black Dress Goods are grand and cheap. Ladies, if you see our Dress Goods you will admire them and buy them. They are so beautiful you can't pass them by. Look at the styles in our show window. A fine Dress Maker from Baltimore to make your dresses or show you the styles. We have Dress Goods from 5c. to $2.00 per yard. Come everybody. Prices to Millinery.

MISS VIRTUE, of Baltimore, and her assistants, have surpassed all former efforts. Hats in every style, price and quality. Be sure to see our lovely Pattern Hats, Birds, Plumes, Ribbons and Feathers, in all the beautiful new tints. I understand that your general agent has paid within the last few years over 5000,000 of death claims in North and to make this the finest stock we have beautiful Ginghams, good Ginghams at 5c, Bleaching, Tickings, Sheetings, Shirtngs, Jeans, Flannels, etc., from the best Factories, as cheap as any man on earth can sell them. Don't fail to get our prices. Lace and Chenille Curtains are lovely. Come and see something new, whether you want to buy or not. Doublewidth Waterproof only 421c.

> Domestics. Lovely Prints, Indigo Calicoes at 5c,

Shoes, Shoes. the world. Ladies' and Children's Fine Shoes, from the best Factories in the country. Look at our Shoes before buying-we are bound to sell,

We want every Lady in Anderson County to see a Corset we offer at 50c-a splendid line from 25c up. A full stock of Thompson Glove Fitting Corsets- only. very best makes. Fancy Articles by the thousands. We have every little article

The manufacturers tried themselves when they made the beautiful Shirts, Collars and Cravats that we have now on prettiest Shirts and Cravats we have ever seen in Anderson. A job lot Laundried Shirts worth 75c we are selling at 50c. Underwear, Hosiery, Etc.-a very large stock, every grade and price. Remem-

One case Boys' Wool Hats at 10c, one case Men's at 25c. C. F. Jones & Co's. Leader, a Felt Hat, at $150, you must be sure to sen. Every style and quality you need you can find at our Store.

Clothing, Clothing.

bound to win. Our $5.00, $8.50 and $10 00 Suits no man can afford to buy elsewhere until he sees them. We have our large hall up stairs packed with nobby, pretty Suits. Come and look at the latest thing in a Nobby, Braided Suit, tailor made, best fitting goods to be found. Men, Boys and Children— We have Shoes for everybody. Try a come! Pay no attention to what others pair of our Douglas Shoes, the best in say. Our Goods and Low Prices will make you buy them. Look at our show window of Shirts, Collars and Cravats. Fine Custom Made Clothing a Specialty. Suits made to order on short notice.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Kind Friends and the Public generally, we cordially invite you to call. We shall have the very Lowest Prices at our Store.

C. F. JONES & CO.

A Big Thing for Anderson.

THE

Kid Glove Department

OF

JONES, SEBYT&CO

Amounts to Over

$1000 ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS. $1000

In this Department we show All the Latest Styles, In all Shades.

The Anista 5-Hook Laced Glove at one dollar is a beauty.

The Dresden 7-Hook is a better quality. Try a pair of the Celebrated Foster Paul & Co's. "Lyons" Patent, Mosqueterie Gloves all qualities, Black Snedes all lengths.

In fact, we can give you Kid Gloves at any price, from 50c per pair to $2.50 per

Any Glove bought of us at One Dollar per pair or upwards guaranteed, or another pair will be given free if they do not give satisfaction.

JONES, SEYBT & CO

Issued for our Fall Trade of 1891 is intended to Eclipse anything ever offered in this market in the way of LOW PRICES!

THIS is no idle talk, but we mean to sell these goods just as advertised, claims ing to have bought them be ow their regular value, and we propose to give our customers the full benefit of our exceptional advantages in having secured these

No need of crying hard times when you can buy a Wool Cashmere, in all colors, at 121c that others are selling for 20c. Our Silk Lusters, in all shades, are simply beautiful, and have leen selling everywhere for 25c-our price now 15c per yard. Double width, all wo I Tricot, former price 40c, we are offering now for 25c

Surely a Rare Bargain. Plain Wool Henriettas, heretofore sold for 35c by all dealers, we are offering now at 20c. Plaid Henricttas, all wool, beautiful colors and rich patterns, selling regularly at 40c, we are now offering at 25c only.

The Greatest Bargain of the Season. In the way of a double width Lady Cloth, 54 inches wide, extra heavy, suitable for Traveling Suits, Wraps or Boys' Suits. These goods retailed all over the country regularly for $1.25 per yard-our price now 75c per yard. Black Silk, worth $1.50, at $1.00 per yard. Black Silk, worth $2.00, at $1.25 per yard.

Latest Novelties in Cotton Dress Goods, sold at 121c, only 5c per yard.

Indigo Blue Prints, best quality made, 5c per yard. Full nine ounce all wool Jeans, worth regularly 40c, we are now selling at 25c

To Close Out. Child Copper Tip Shoes, never before sold anywhere for less than 45c by the case, we will close out now at 25c per pair. Men's P. Calf Shoes, that you often paid $1.25 for, yours now at per pair. Men's Calf Skin Shoes, seamless, solid leather, regular price $2.00, our price

Last, but not Least, our Immense Stock of Clothing has been bought very Cheap, and we propose to sell at Prices that will astonish the Natives. Parties contemplating to purchase anything in this line, whether it is a Boys', Youths' or Men's Suit, will certainly miss a great opportunity by not examining our Stock of Clothing before purchasing elsewhere. In order to enable us to show our Clothing adven ageously, we have rented the Store next to ours, under Masonic Temple, where we will be better prepared to display our Clothing, Hats and Gents'

Furnishing Goods separate and distinct from our Dry Goods and Shoe Depart-

ONE MORE WORD,

And we will have finished our speech for this week. When you come to Town whether to Buy or on a Prospecting Tour, we will treat you with the same politer ness and attention. We delight in showing Goods whether you purchase or not and we are perfectly willing for you to judge for yourself whether or not you will

LESSER & CO.

One Price Clothing Dealers, ANDERSON, S. C.

The Young Ladies' Society of the Presbyterian Church will serve a dinner on next Tuesday, 20th inst., in the store room recently occupied by W. F. Barr. We guarantee the young ladies will give you good dinner for a reasonable price, and of the INTELLIGENCER. He is still selling watches, clocks, jewelry, etc., at remarkably low prices, and will repair either at

The old Pavillion Hotel, which now bears the name of the St. Charles, at the corner of Hasel and Meeting Streets in Charleston has again been opened to the year, making 934 more bales for this sea-son than last.

the groom's parents will tender the happy couple a reception. The couple will leave that afternoon for Athens.

in better condition, and could easily be distinguished in a pile of a dozen or more samples from other Counties. This is a high compliment to our farmers.

mployers and their patrons.

The members of this firm are young men that are well and favorably known to our people, and we take pleasure in asking the attention of our readers to the pointed re-marks made by them in another column. Mr. W. T. Grubbs, who lives over in pounds. The day was cloudy and pleas-ant, but the cotton had no water in it. Can any of our boy readers beat Scudday and Bennie's record? Mr. M. B. Luchardson, of Garvin township, showed us a day or two ago, some strange nuts—looks like a cross between a chesnut and a chinquapin. There is only one tree, and it grows out in a field by it-self. They are good to eat, and the tree is a prolific bearer. If the tree could be multiplied it might prove a bonanza. But

A progressive farmer of Abbeville County, who lives only eight miles from his Court House, brought his cotton to this market last week, hauling it 22 miles. He said he brought it here because he could get more for it here than anywhere else. He said he was offered 8.08 at his ome market but got 8.30, a difference of good place to sell cotton. That is why here, and the firm name hereafter will be The Sullivan Hardware Company. This strengthens the house and makes it better Old John Bushyhead, the Cherokee Chief, told us there were 1,600 Indians in his tribe in Cherokee County, N. C., of which he was supreme ruler. He said his people were becoming educated in the Government schools, and were learning goods, etc. The heavy groceries are kept the left side is given up exclusively to shoes, boots, etc. In the rear on the right is his millinery department, and on the other side we find fancy groceries, canned goods, etc. The heavy groceries are kept thing for the successful practice of his profession. He has a sitting-room nicely furand are becoming christianized. He said they farm for a living and have much old Lemuel W. Crenshaw, Archie T. Mauldin, Robert M. Shirley, Wm. H. Martin, John R. Bailey, Chas. M. Cobb, Wm. B. Bailey, Silas Kay, Daniel F. Anderson, Sam'l A. Harris, J. A. Daniels, H. H. Acker, Wm. B. Hembree, Preston B. Mitchell, James A. Elgin, James A. Bolt, James L. Geer, Robert J. Poole, James R. Thompson and John V. Whit.

It has the great advantage that it does not | rior is painted white, with green blinds, njure the skin, but renders it soft, like a and the interior is finished in oil, showing wipe dry with a crash towel. Two or three such baths will take off all the tan been preached by the pastors of the city to young men at the request of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Smith spoke eloquently and feelingly, and his sermon was one that was calculated to make men think and determine body to join in singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," etc. After the usual preceding services, Mr. Galphin was introduced to the congregation, and announced as his text part of the 14th and 15th verses of the 5th chapter of Matthew. He spoke of the mission of the is quite as much to her interest as that of Church, its relation to the world and how Anderson."

Church, its relation to the world and how it should do its work, and closed with a our congratulation.

or, Sumter; R. W. Gibbes, color ser-COMPANY A-W. F. Nardin, of Ander-son, captain; H. E. Fant. of Anderson, first lieutenant; J. McCully, of Ander son, second lieutenant; J. W. Gray, o

Abbeville, second corporal; N. L. Broughton, Clarendon, third corporal J. C. Emmons, Beaufort, fourth corpo

ing cotton weigher, informs us that from September 1st to October 10th, our little town bought 1,270 bales of cotton. On Saturday, the 3rd inst., 160 bales were sold to the Belton cotton buyers. Last Saturday, the 10th, 128 bales were sold in our so badly cut to pieces in his gin as to ne-cessitate the amputation of his arm. We are truly sorry to hear of that sad accident spects superior to that of any previous to an esteemed citizen.

Mrs. Walker, the sister of Mrs. J. T

Mr. A. C. Latimer has recently returned ling in the interest of the Cox & Taylor Fire Extinguisher. He reports his busi-Some of the ladies of the Baptist Church higher classes in College.

esponses, and invited the people to attend. Reading-F. A. Rice. Declamation—S. A. Guy. Declamation—J. C. Harper. Oration—I. Y. Moore.
Toast—The United States, the greatest

The exercises of the Society were followed by an address from the Rev. A. C.

paying as much for cotton the last week as it has been bringing anywhere in the upper part of the State.
T. J. Clatworthy has opened a racket and grocery store at W. A. Shirley's old

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, you need. Come to our Store, and you Gents' Furnishings.

ber, no house can undersell us.

Our Mr. Webb traveled this summer for a Clothing Manufacturer, and we bought our goods so cheap that we are have one of the Grandest Stocks of Goods that has ever been in Anderson. You We thank you for the past, and say come-we can do better for you than ever